

SOCIETY OF MACKINAC ISLAND OLD GOATS, DETROIT

OLD GOAT

The Society of Mackinac Island Old Goats, Detroit was formed in the 1950's to recognize sailors who had completed twenty-five or more Bayview Mackinac Races. At that time, local sailors such as Bobbie Roadstrum, George E. Van, Commodore Bill Nagel, Stan Puddiford, Commodore Trent McMath, Ted Coggin and Bobbie Bryant had all sailed Mackinac Races starting in the 1920's and they were inspired when the Chicago Yacht Club created its prestigious Island Goat Sailing Society, Chicago to recognize sailors who had completed twenty-five Chicago Yacht Club Race to Mackinac races. (The term "Goat" is of unknown origin, although it has been suggested that a sailor arriving on Mackinac Island after several days at sea might carry the aroma of an old goat.)

Today, racing sailors count their Mackinac Races like some people count birthdays and anniversaries. Ask any real sailor how many Bayview Mackinac Races they have completed, and an immediate and accurate response will be forthcoming. Completing 25 races to Mackinac Island is a significant accomplishment and Old Goats are honored to be listed among other sailors that have attained this status.

Membership in the Society of Mackinac Island Old Goats, Detroit is open to all sailors who have completed twenty-five or more Bayview Mackinac Races.
